

C of C and PTA Invited to Parley on Name for School

Defer Naming of the New High School

The Board of Trustees of Grossmont Union High School District have delayed naming the new high school to be built at the west edge of La Mesa.

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, and the Lemon Grove PTA received letters from Supt. Lewis F. Smith, asking that representatives of the organizations meet with the board to discuss a suitable name for the new school.

The matter of naming the new school was discussed at the last meeting of the board, but no decision was reached, though several plans for naming this and other high schools as they are built were brought forth, among them one suggestion of naming the new schools after geographical features, such as hills or mountains.

There is strong sentiment among the board members to name the schools after the towns in which they are located.

Mr. Smith, in his letter to the Lemon Grove groups, stated that this has the advantage of permitting strangers to locate the school immediately, though it has its disadvantages, in that students will attend from a number of different communities.

A meeting will be arranged between the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, the Lemon Grove PTA and the high school board and the superintendent in the very near future.

Toastmistress Club Gets Charter

The recently organized Suburban Toastmistress Club will receive its charter Saturday night at a formal banquet of the Toastmistress Convention at Huntington Hotel, Pasadena.

Present to receive the charter will be Mrs. David Hentigan, president, who will be accompanied by two delegates, Mrs. R. B. Kalaquinn and Mrs. A. E. Ross.

Mrs. Hentigan will give the convention report at the Club dinner meeting at 7:30 Wednesday evening at Rose Hedge Manor. Mrs. Kalaquinn will be toastmistress and Mrs. Ross one of the speakers.

School Board Budget Meeting

The budget meeting of the Lemon Grove Elementary School Board of Trustees will be held on Monday evening, August 7.

The meeting is open to the public, as are all of the meetings of the school board.

The board will meet on the second Monday of each month during the next school year.

Bill enjoyed swimming, sight seeing and boating trips, courtesies given the team while in the two cities.

Mode O' Day To Open Here

Mode O' Day, nation-wide women's wear store, has rented the store room at 7808 Broadway and will open a store here sometime next month.

The store is one of the new buildings completed by George W. Casteel at 7808, 7810 and 7812 Broadway.

DATES CLAIMED

July 11, 12, 13, 18, 19, 20—Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds Day
Camp, Collier Park, 10 to 2 each day.
July 24-28; Aug. 7-11—Girl Scout Day Camp, Eucalyptus Park.
August 17-18-19—Lemon Grove Powwow.

Hi, Neighbor by Mae Rex Graham

There is an old Danish proverb: "No one is rich enough to do without a neighbor."

Lonely, indeed, is the person who has no neighbor. And that applies to the business world, too.

One of the nicest things about Lemon Grove is the neighborliness among the business people. Each one interested in his neighbor, wanting him to prosper and be happy.

We folks on the north side of Broadway east of Imperial think we have the finest bunch in town. (Hope the rest of you on the other side, feel the same way about your neighbors.)

Stop in at the corner for information, and you'll find that George Casteel is never too busy to answer any query. If he doesn't have the answer, he'll get it for you at the County Court house or from Tony Sonka.

Couple of other Hi Neighbors in there, too, you ought to know—Perry Long in Fergusons Insurance and Lester Geiger, real estate broker.

The Petite Shop is nicely located now in the new Casteel building and you couldn't ask for a nicer place to buy clothing and accessories for boys, girls or tiny tots. Sociable ladies there, too, to serve you.

Next door is Cressy's. We call them the friendly store. Surely is a popular place for ladies who like to sew. Men and boys sure go for the snazzy shirts and other wearables at Cressy's.

Frank and Fairline Roberts in the Western Auto are down in Mexico fishing and taking it easy for two weeks. Frank's dad, Frank, Sr., is running the store while the kids are gone.

Now we come to our favorite spot, the Flower Shop. Mrs. Lewis has been there long enough that every one should know her. Did you know that every Wednesday she goes to school to learn to make better corsages for the ladies, lovely floral arrangements, etc. Whenever you want a floral piece to send to a funeral, Mrs. Lewis can supply any kind you choose—her prices are most reasonable, too. Her cheerful helper, Mrs. Harriet Rothwell, is always happy to have callers stop in.

Very soon, we'll have a new neighbor in our midst, when the Mode O' Day store opens in the Casteel building.

Busy Week for Scout Leaders

Mrs. Meril L. Rose, Girl Scout field director, will give instructions on duties of Camp directors at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Arnold Smith, 2738 Washington. All directors and committee chairmen of camp activities are requested to be present.

A Girl Scout work shop for Intermediate and Brownie staffs will be directed by Mrs. I. J. Johnson at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon at Community Center.

All directors of the Girl Scout Camp will meet at Eucalyptus Park at 10 a. m. on Wednesday for an "On the Site" training. The directors may bring their children and each one is to bring her own sack lunch. If transportation is needed, call H 6-8517 or H 6-8083.

Women's League Joins Powow

The Business Women's League met at luncheon on Thursday of last week at Friendship Hall. Mrs. Burton Snyder presided in the absence of the president and vice-president.

The group voted to join the Powow Corporation and appointed Mrs. Snyder as the representative.

Mrs. Al Huebsch and Mrs. Bruno Leonese were appointed co-chairmen for the Powow stage program; Mrs. George Dickinson and Mrs. Forrest Baxter, float; Mrs. Oscar Johnson, lemonade booth.

Summer Program Arouses Interest

Total enrollment in the recreation program has been 190 at Lemon Grove School and 85 at Vista La Mesa School. Increased enrollment is expected as the program goes along. Children may enroll at any time, so they are requested to tell their friends.

The more children of all ages that come continuously, the better the program can be for every one. The enrollment has been heavy in the lower grades and since the program had been planned for older children too, it is hoped to see more upper grades so teams of soft ball, volleyball and basketball may be arranged.

The craft program as planned could use materials such as spools, cardboard, scrap lumber, thread, old buckles, crepe paper. Donations would be appreciated at both schools.

The schedules provide supervised play at Lemon Grove School on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and Tuesday and Thursday at Vista La Mesa School, starting at 9:00 with games and continuing through the day with craft activities.

The supervisors request that the children return to their homes for the lunch hour as no duty will be on duty from 12 to 1:30.

Should professional gambling be legalized in California?

From now until the November elections, a group of promoters (among them the chief leaders of the old Ham 'n Eggs movement) will be ringing doorbells up and down the State to try to convince the voters that it should be—under terms and conditions drawn up by the promoters themselves in a proposed Constitutional Amendment titled, of all things, "Pension and Welfare Finding Act."

The issue of legalizing gambling is probably as old as time. And it doubtless will be kicked around far into the future. Many sincere people who advocate it argue that inasmuch as a great many people like to gamble, the State should license gambling establishments and derive tax money thereby. They point to the failure of the Prohibition experiment and see a parallel in laws prohibiting gambling operations.

Opponents of licensed gambling reply that many people—too many—like to buy reefer and heroin, others drive recklessly and some embezzle money. But we don't legalize the dope traffic, and we keep laws on the books against reckless driving and thievery.

They argue that Prohibition failed because it outlawed an established and accepted industry dealing in important commodities and having widespread ramifications in processing and distribution operations. There's no parallel, they maintain, between the gambling business and the liquor business, because gambling isn't buying and selling—it's simply exploiting a human weakness.

In his book, "Gambling, Should it be Legalized?" Virgil Peterson, Director of the Chicago Crime Commission, points out that our gambling laws on the books of the various States weren't put there because of our early Puritanical traditions, but were enacted usually after professional gamblers who controlled the underworld got completely out of hand.

New Orleans, according to Mr. Peterson's book, experimented with legalized gambling more often than any other American city, but never succeeded in controlling gambling abuses by the license method. During the period of New Orleans' last "wide-open" experiment, hundreds of gambling establishments, though Continued on Page 4

Netzley Tells of School Finances

Byron Netzley, superintendent of the Lemon Grove Schools, gave a talk on school finances at the Kiwanis Club Monday noon.

He told about the $250 million state bond issue for schools, which was voted last November, and is just now being allocated to the school districts.

Lemon Grove was the third school district in the state to make application for funds, but the powers that be changed the rules so fast that order of application had nothing to do with getting the money.

Schools were rated according to need, that is, the number of unhousehold children.

After appropriating $19,000,000 it was found that not a single new classroom had been provided for, that the money so far allocated had gone to replace antiquated school buildings.

Lemon Grove was next in line. Mr. Netzley said, when the allocation proceedings were stopped and it was decided to change the rules again. This time to take care of overcrowded districts.

While new rules are being set up the proceedings have come to a standstill.

Mr. Netzley hopes that Lemon Grove will be included in the next appropriation.

Pans are underway to double the size of Monterey Heights School, increase the size of Vista La Mesa School and Lemon Grove School, and build a new school on San Miguel just west of Massachusetts, he said.

The voters of the district have already approved a bond issue last November, as well as overwhelmingly voting for the state bond issue for schools.

The Los Angeles Daily Journal is already calling it "World War III."

Seek to Get Everybody Counted in Windup of Census Work

"I WASN'T COUNTED WERE YOU?"

San Diego County's "missing persons"—individuals who may have been overlooked during the recent census—are being sought in a county-wide survey that may mean a myriad of benefits for the area.

All newspapers in the county, as well as other media, are being asked to co-operate in an effort to contact any person who believes he may have been missed when enumerators made their tally several weeks ago.

Such individuals are being asked to fill out printed forms, one of which is carried in today's Review, and mail it to the San Diego County Citizens Census Committee, Postoffice Box 668, San Diego 12.

The forms will be forwarded to the Census Office in Washington, D. C., where names on them will be checked against those gathered by the official enumerators in the San Diego County census.

If the names submitted are not found on the Washington list, individual census returns will be mailed to the persons involved. In no case, however, will enumerators call at homes, nor will persons who have been tallied once be counted again.

As the "recount" got under way, City Manager O. W. Campbell, County Board of Supervisors.

Albert Keefer, Jr. Wins Award

David Huick of Spring Valley, Albert Keefer, Jr., Bob Parsons and Richard Masters, attended the Salvation Army annual music camp at Mt. Craggs near Calabasas, last week.

There were 120 young people from the State in attendance and a regular course in theory, bands and vocal music was given with devotion and recreation periods.

A concert of band and vocal selections at the Salvation Army tabernacle last Sunday afternoon concluded the week's activities. Over 1000 persons were in attendance.

Of special local interest was the giving of awards for proficiency in the music classes as Albert Keefer, Jr., of Lemon Grove received the Gold Medal, highest award given. Bob Parsons was on the honorable mention list in class "A."

All dormitories, except one, at the camp are named after famous Los Angeles band masters. The other is given the name of the student receiving the Gold Medal, so this year will bear the name of Albert Keefer.

Elsters Return From Trip East

Rev. and Mrs. LeRoy Elster and daughters Elsa and Marlene, of Lutheran Church, returned Monday from a four weeks' trip to Northfield, Minn., where they attended a Home Mission retreat at St. Olaf College.

They visited Rev. Elster's parents in Minneapolis and attended the General Convention of the Lutheran Synod for two weeks. They also visited his sister for three days at Lily, S. Dakota.

The Elsters had a most profitable trip but are happy to be back to take up their work in Lemon Grove.

CONTROL OF THE RED SPIDER IN BEANS

Dr. Francis Smith, of the University of California College of Agriculture, stated early this week that bean growers can control the red spider effectively through good farm management, according to Farm Advisor Bernard J. Hall, of San Diego County.

By setting up a three point program wherein the grower: (1) provides ample irrigation to the field; (2) sets up a dust prevention program; and (3) destroys weeds that are natural hosts to the insects, the red spider problem in California will be greatly reduced, Dr. Smith states.

New Officers for Civic Organization

The regular monthly meeting of the Monterey Heights Civic Organization was called to order at 8:00 p. m. Monday, at the Monterey Heights School.

David Hentigan, president, presided, and after installation of the newly-elected officers, turned the meeting over to Robert Galland who, as president, will be assisted by Mrs. D. C. Tucker as secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Marian S. Batchelder as corresponding secretary.

Pertinent matters under discussion included plans for the Monterey Heights Teentimers Club, and the matter of installing safety reflectors on the service poles at strategic points, in the Monterey Heights district.

Mr. Galland, who has been sponsor and advisor to the Teentimers, consented to continue in that capacity, but stressed the importance of having additional adult supervision at the club's meetings, and activities which are planned for the future.

A special meeting of the Civic Organization has been scheduled for Monday, July 24, at 8:00 p. m. in the school for the purpose of making plans for participation in the Powow. The new president is most anxious to have a large turnout of Monterey Heights residents, as there are many important projects for the future which are going to require the co-operation of those who will benefit by them.

Flycatchers were dutifully carrying food to their hungry brood. Jays were teaching their young the ways of life and earning a livelihood. Five alighted in a tree, the parents went on ahead and not until the three children heard the go sign did they leave the post that mother and daddy Jay had assigned them.

Hunting Indian artifacts has intruded and more or less upset the age-long habit of the Treganza family who have always searched every tree and nook and cranny for a nest of eggs or perchance some new mannerism or a new note of some familiar bird species heretofore unnoticed.

Another pattern of beauty to delight the soul is the mosaic of wild flowers carpeting every foot of ground—arrangements so subtle, so delicate and artistic that human efforts are quite eclipsed; dainty and lavender hued thistle in the shade of a protecting pine reaching up for the sunlight; large yellow lilies, smaller cream shaded varieties, tiny daisies, diminutive sand verbenas, crimson Indian paint brush and vermilion bells suspended from slender stems, blue lupin and a hundred more varieties that escape the untrained eye and neglected mind.

I vow every year I shall brush up my flowers here at least to a speaking acquaintance before another year rolls around, but Hell is paved with good intentions. There's just too much to crowd into one life time.

Words of Wisdom

Assemblyman Francis Dunn, Jr., Alameda—"Legislative committees bring the Legislature to the people, instead of waiting for the people to come to Sacramento."

Mrs. Clinton Barr, Eagle Rock, League of Women Voters—"Never be afraid of going after an unpopular issue if you believe firmly that it is in the public interest."

Bob Hope, Hollywood—"I got to keep working because Uncle Sam's been spending it as fast as I can make it."

Dr. Irving P. Krick, Pasadena weather expert—"An extra inch of rainfall in one place, produced by seeding clouds, won't affect precipitation in any other area by more than one-hundredths of an inch."
